

Steel Valley Beacon Arts

Company No: 12845448

Charity No: 1192514

Membership Code of Conduct

The Mission of Steel Valley Beacon Arts is to offer the opportunity to anyone in our area to develop their performing arts skills in a safe inclusive environment in order to create quality theatre productions for our community.

The Vision of Steel Valley Beacon Arts is to be an excellent example of community theatre; working together, building individual and group confidence and self-esteem to provide quality entertainment in the community.

In joining the Steel Valley Beacon Arts Community you are agreeing to help us achieve our mission and vision.

You agree to:

- pay promptly for all activities you commit too
- make every effort to join all rehearsals / activities you commit too
- arrive in good time for all rehearsals / activities
- cooperate with others, especially those working and volunteering for SVBA
- be friendly and polite
- listen to others
- be helpful and undertake fundraising and support roles to make SVBA a success
- treat everyone with respect
- take responsibility for your own behaviour
- talk to our activity leaders / Trustees about anything that worries or concerns you
- follow this code of behaviour and other rules (including the law)
- join in and have fun!

You agree not to:

- be disrespectful to anyone else
- bully other people (online or offline)
- behave in a way that could be intimidating
- be abusive towards anyone.

Our policies and procedures have been designed to keep everyone safe, so please make sure you are familiar with them

